

WHAT'S THE PLAN?

Lecture-performance by Giovanni Savino

Stories, music, stilts and languages
to educate beyond stereotypes.

THE SHOW

An educator takes the stage alone and turns real-life experience, theatre, irony and social circus into a live narrative created for educators, schools, universities, festivals and communities.

A REAL JOURNEY

From work in the neighbourhoods of Naples with the social cooperative Il Tappeto di Iqbal to international experiences, this is the story of a method that brings together education, art and sport to create real opportunities for children and adolescents.

STORY, TERRITORY, WORLD

A journey through childhood, city outskirts and the possibility of change, with a gaze that starts in Naples and reaches schools, theatres and festivals in Italy and abroad.

DURATION

About 1 hour (adaptable)

AUDIENCE

Schools, universities, festivals, theatres,
communities, public
and private events

LANGUAGE

Direct, engaging, suitable for young people and adults
